

November Moment of Mercy

November is the beginning of the holiday season when many people can feel loneliness. Take the time to visit someone you have been meaning to visit but have been putting it off. Be bold and take that step! You'll be glad you did!